Carter's Crew Presents

The 3rd Annual Orange Tie Gala

On October 2, 2013, one day after his third birthday, our son Carter was diagnosed with autism spectrum disorder. Anyone who has ever come into contact with Carter knows that he is a bright, lovable and compassionate little boy who loves school, playing with his friends and EVERYTHING sports related! With the support of many wonderful service providers, programs and teachers, Carter has made amazing progress. The overwhelming amount of support that we received made us want to help families facing similar challenges. Therefore, we decided to make it our mission to support the autism community and give back in any way possible.

Over the last two years, the annual Orange Tie Gala has raised over $50,000. This money has and will continue to be used to fund various programs in the Capital Region that support individuals on the spectrum and their families. Please help us continue our mission at the 3rd Annual Orange Tie Gala. We would be honored if you would join us for an evening of cocktails, dinner and dancing to raise awareness and money for such a wonderful cause.

~The Slingerland Family - George, Tina, Carter & Kendall

Help us create a world where people have a better understanding of autism.

Help us create a world where differences are celebrated.

Imagine the possibilities...
